

Get your CREATIVE Juices flowing

We all know the phrase "to get your creative juices flowing" but have you ever wondered just what these "creative juices" might actually look like? Are they thin and runny like bubble tea? Or thick and sticky like honey? If you want to find out, become a student at LASALLE College of the Arts and we promise to squeeze you so hard, you'll be dripping in the stuff. By the time you leave, you'll be so full of ideas the world won't know what hit it!

Where it all happens

Our campus has even been designed to let your creativity flow freely. We have students from over 40 countries, across 8 disciplines, all within one building! Just imagine the collaborations you'll get up to and the friends you'll make from all over the world. And with our diplomas (fees subsidised by the MOE) and degrees benchmarked by the Quality Assurance Agency UK and validated by the UK's Open University, you'll be able to work all over the world too.
