

Stephanie

STEPHANIE is a happy girl who thinks that one should not hide their flaws.

"No one is perfect anyway, and our flaws make us who we are."

The 20-year-old is studying banking and finance at the Singapore Institute of Management.

She says: "I love numbers! I've always done well in mathematics in school."

But she is quick to add: "But I'm not a nerd."

20 Things about Stephanie

I absolutely hate vegetables.

I can get rather impatient at times. That's my worst trait.

"Hey, how you doing?" (as quoted by Joey from the TV series Friends), is the best pick-up line.

I have a lot of clothes and accessories in green. Even my contact lenses are green.

If I could do it, I would stop the LTA from putting up so many darn ERP gantries.

I really like most genres of music, but I listen to R&B the most

I like anything that has a catchy tune and beat.

I love the movie Grease (starring John Travolta) and the sequel. I am crazy about that movie.

Nothing can beat my mum's cooking.

I Will Follow You Into The Dark by Death Cab For Cutie is on my iPod now.

Let it Go by Brit & Alex makes me feel like dancing.

Having my friends and loved ones around makes me smile a lot.

I would bungee jump. It sounds fun.

Sad movies with those really captivating sad songs make me cry.

I'm not the biggest fan of sushi. I don't like uncooked food.

I love dogs!

I'm not a big fan of clubs. There's too many people and you have no personal space.

I would like to try skydiving.

I am bad with directions.

If there is a celebrity I can date, I would choose Johnny Depp.
